2018 SEASON/OHIO'S LIVESTOCK HEALTH EXHIBITION RULES

901:1-18-01. CHAPTER'S APPLICATION.

- (A) Animals listed in this chapter when moved or imported into Ohio for exhibition purposes only shall comply with the requirements of this chapter and when in compliance with the provisions of this chapter shall, with the exception of rules governing movement and importation of quarantined animals, be exempt from any other rules governing movement within or importation into Ohio.
- (B) Animals moved within or imported into Ohio for any purpose in addition to exhibition shall meet all movement and import requirements of chapter 901:1-17 of the Administrative Code.

901:1-18-02. DEFINITIONS. As used in this chapter.

- (A) "Exhibition" means any public show of animals which is sponsored by or under the control of an Ohio county or independent agricultural society organized under Chapter 1711. of the Revised Code; or the Ohio State Fair; or which is assembled for a period which exceeds thirty-six hours or contains animals of origins other than Ohio.
- (B) "Certificate of Veterinary Inspection" means a form from the state of origin which has been issued and completed by a licensed and accredited veterinarian attesting to the health status and identification of an animal listed thereon.
- (C) "Approved Veterinarian" means any licensed and accredited veterinarian approved by the Ohio Department of Agriculture, or an employee of the Ohio Department of Agriculture or the United States Department of Agriculture, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, Veterinary Services.
- (D) "Licensed and accredited veterinarian" means a person who is licensed by the State of Ohio to practice veterinary medicine and who is certified by the United States Department of Agriculture, Animal Plant Health Inspection Service, Veterinary Services, to be an accredited veterinarian.
- (E) "Residue" means any poisonous or deleterious pesticide governed by 40 C.F.R. 180, any poisonous or deleterious substance governed by 21 C.F.R. 109.6, or any other substance governed by 21 C.F.R. 556.
- (F) "Contagious or infectious disease" means any disease, including any foreign animal disease, or vector, capable of transmission by any means from a carrier animal to a human or to another animal and includes dangerously contagious or infectious diseases.
- (G) "Tuberculosis accredited free herd" is one that has passed at least two consecutive annual negative official tests for tuberculosis in accordance with the "Uniform Methods and Rules - Bovine Tuberculosis Eradication," and has no other evidence of bovine tuberculosis.

901:1-18-03. EXHIBITIONS: SANITATION, INSPECTION AND RECORDS.

- (A) Each entity sponsoring an exhibition shall have in attendance an approved veterinarian for the duration of the exhibit.
- (B) Each entity sponsoring an exhibition shall:
 - (1) Immediately, prior to an exhibition and under the direction of the approved veterinarian, thoroughly clean and disinfect each building, pen, stall, ring or other enclosure in which animals are to be quartered for exhibition;
 - (2) Have the approved veterinarian:
 - (a) Examine the certificate of veterinary inspection when required for an animal brought to the exhibition;
 - (b) Inspect within a reasonable time of arrival each animal brought to the exhibit for symptoms of any contagious or infectious diseases;
 - (c) Daily inspect each animal present at the exhibition for symptoms of contagious or infectious disease.
 - (3) Maintain a record for one year from the date of the exhibition of each animal present at the exhibit. The record shall contain the name and address of the owner of each animal and the species and breed of the animal.
 - (4) May order the immediate removal of any animal which in the opinion of the approved veterinarian places other animals at unacceptable risk of disease.

- (C) An exemption from the requirements of paragraph (B)(1) of this rule may be requested from the department and will be granted when, in the judgment of the department, cleaning and disinfection will serve no purpose. By way of example only, cleaning and disinfection will generally serve no purpose in a newly constructed building that has never been occupied.

901:1-18-04. EXHIBITORS.

- (A) No person shall present for exhibition or exhibit an animal which he knows or has reason to suspect is affected with or has been exposed to a dangerously contagious or infectious disease or residue.

OHIO LIVESTOCK TAMPERING EXHIBITION RULES

The Ashtabula County Agricultural Society adheres to, and requires that all individuals and organizations participating in activities involving the Ashtabula County Fair, which may be governed under it, to adhere to the Ohio State Exhibition tampering rules detailed in chapters 901-19 of the Ohio Administrative Code. The Ashtabula County Senior Fair Board recommends that all exhibitors and interested parties become knowledgeable in the rules. The Ashtabula County Senior Fair Board will make copies of the Ohio Administrative Code, chapters 901-19 available upon request.

EXHIBITOR CONDUCT

Exhibitors are expected to conduct themselves in an orderly and courteous manner. Harassment, profanity, and unsportsmanlike conduct toward fair officials, judges, show managers, help or exhibitors will not be tolerated. Violators will be dismissed from the show, asked to leave the premises, may forfeit all premiums won, and may be barred from further participation at future fairs.

RULE VIOLATIONS

- (1) Any individuals involved in a violation of the rules or regulations of the Ashtabula County Fair will be barred from exhibiting or participation at this fair and will forfeit all premiums, prize money and awards won in any junior fair and/or open class divisions.
- (2) In the question of a rule violation, the following due process will be used: The exhibitor and/or parties involved will be questioned by fair officials. If it is felt that a violation has occurred, fair officials will make recommendations to the designated committee of the Senior Fairboard that is appointed to that particular department. After the committee hears the allegations and/or evidence, they will decide if the case should be brought before the full Board of Directors.

- (3) In the decision of allegations being brought before the Board, all parties involved will be notified of a meeting date with all parties having the right to present their views and/or evidence.
- (4) Upon hearing the case, the Fair Board will make a ruling.
- (5) The Fair Board reserves the right to impose penalties and take disciplinary action for any rule or policy violation occurring during the fair and at all fair related activities throughout the course of the year. These penalties may include, but are not limited to disqualification, loss of awards and premiums, as well as banishment from future fairs.

CATTLE DEPARTMENT RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Entry fees must accompany entries. Fees are for each animal or group entered.
2. Livestock will be checked into fairgrounds only between 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. Sunday, August 5, 2018 and 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. Monday, August 6, 2018. Please enter fairgrounds on Sunday using the Cattle Gate and on Monday using the Main Gate. All animals must be checked by the fair vet at the gate before unloading.
3. All animals must be secured to the satisfaction of the superintendent.
4. Every female over twenty-four months must have produced a living calf within 12 months or prove to be with calf. A freemartin heifer shall be barred from showing until she has become of such age as to have proven a breeder. No animal which is not entered in single classes shall be permitted to show in groups.
5. Registry Certificates must be furnished when requested by the judges or superintendent. An animal of the Holstein breed will be considered registered if certificate shows at least 90% Holstein ancestry.
6. Ages of cattle under two years shall be stated in months on entry tag.
7. All cattle must be in their proper places on the grounds by 3:00 p.m. Monday, Aug. 6, 2018. Stalls for cattle will be allotted by the Superintendent of Cattle only, and not until entry is made and the fee paid.
8. Judging - See Schedule.
9. No grade classes (except for beef). All animals must have Registry Certificate and be purebred to enter. No papers pending - papers in process will not be accepted. Copies of registration MUST accompany beef entries. Any falsification by exhibitor, breeder, or previous owner will result in permanent barring from the Ashtabula County Fair.
10. The Society reserves the right to withhold the payment of premium money to any exhibitor who does not present his cattle in show condition, and if the premiums exceed the budget, the money will be prorated.
11. An exhibitor making a false or misleading statement, exhibiting cattle that have been artificially fitted or treated, showing an animal out of proper class, substituting one animal for another without correction of the records at the Cattle Superintendent's office before entering the ring, or for any other dishonorable practice, shall forfeit all premiums.
12. Judges shall not award a prize to any unworthy exhibit. It is the intention of the management that no premium or distinction of any kind shall be given any animal that is not deserving of that award.
No Junior or Senior Champion Awards will be made in classes where there are not at least two competing first-place winners unless the first-place winner is an outstanding animal, considered worthy by the judge, of the championship. No Grand Championship will be awarded where there is not a junior and senior champion competing, unless the judge considers the one animal worthy of a Grand Champion.
In no cases will a Junior, Senior or Grand Champion be awarded to any animal which the judge does not consider worthy of the award.
13. No cattle will be released before 7:00 p.m. Sunday.
14. Genetic Recovery - only final step will be accepted.
15. All cows must be milked by the owners. The parlor manager is not responsible for milking.
16. On open show day, the parlor will be open at the completion of the cow classes. If you choose to use it at this time, it is your choice.
